

Dear Ambassador,

Thank you for being a champion for vulnerable children! I'm so grateful that you're raising your voice boldly to speak up on their behalf.

I pray that your message is powerful and effective! Thank you for your heart to help others understand the challenges children face – poverty, food scarcity, lack of clean water, education, safety. Thank you for bringing hope to hard places. This is much more than an event or service. This is an opportunity to transform lives ... and a day to help your church family live out their faith.

Through sponsorship, you and I provide support in two ways. One, we support life-changing care provided by local Child Champions to meet very real needs. Two, we're speaking truth into children's lives and changing their story. We are joining our voices of encouragement with loving local leaders – teachers, coaches, youth pastors, social workers – to help kids thrive. Through your action, you are infusing hope at a moment when they need it most.

Thank you for your commitment to partner with OneChild as a member of our global community of Child Champions. Sponsoring a child who needs your love, support and encouragement makes a significant impact in their life. And now, you're taking another bold step – inspiring others to join you!

Let's raise up a new hope-filled generation around the world. I can't wait to see all that God accomplishes through your event or service. I'm grateful for your time, effort and commitment. Thank you for living with courage and generosity – putting your faith into action!

For the kids,
